Kenſington, May 23.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Great Marlow, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir James Etheredge and George Bruere, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and the Reverend Mr. Millechamp their Miniſter; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Cheney, Viſcount Newhaven, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Bucks.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks.

MADAM!

ADmiration and Gratitude are the mighty Motives that cauſe us humbly to approach the Throne.

Your ſtopping the Torrent of Succeſsful Power, giving to divided Europe the Bleſſing of Peace, and awakening into Happineſs thoſe that ſeem'd infatuated with Miſery, proclaims You the Favourite of Heaven, as well as the ador'd Monarch of Your People. Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom in chuſing ſuch Miniſters, and giving Life to their Counſels, who make the Good of their Church and Country always the prime Object of their Care, has not only baffled the Force of Exotick Fraud, but render'd even their Deſigns Abortive, who are Strangers to the Probity of their Native Soil, and ſeem to be born with an Antipathy to Truth.

This, Madam, gives Wings to Your Fame, adds freſh Raptures to our Joy, and will, doubtleſs, in a ſhort Time, revive our Trade.

We cannot mightily wonder, that ſome ſhould think, by the help of Diſtance, to practice their Art of Dividing, with Succeſs; ſince even at Home they have ſtudiouſly endeavour'd to blind our Eyes, and rob us of Reaſon: But we doubt not, but Your Majeſty's prudent Care will always preſerve that Harmony with the Houſe of Hanover, which is ſo neceſſary to our future Happineſs. We ſhall, as far as in us lies, induſtriouſly Cultivate the Arts of Peace, though with more Probity, than ſome of late did thoſe of War; and by our Gratitude and Obedience, endeavour to make our ſelves worthy of the beſt of Earthly Bleſſings, even Your long and Indulgent Reign.

The following Addreſs from the County of Dublin, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of Your Majeſty's County of Dublin, at a General Seſſions and Goal Delivery held for the ſaid County, the 16th of April, 1713.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

IN our laſt Addreſs to Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, we acknowledged Your Goodneſs and great Condeſcenſion in communicating thoſe honourable Terms of Peace, which at this time we heartily rejoice to ſee accompliſhed, by the Wiſdom of Your Majeſty, and the Fidelity of Your Miniſters.

It is wonderful to us, that ſo great a Good to Your Majeſty's Kingdoms, ſhould have ſo great Oppoſition given to it by ſome, who could have no other Ends by their Endeavours to prolong the War, than to rob Your Majeſty of the Glory of obtaining ſo honourable a Peace.

Whatever the Views of ſuch may be, we deſire to look forward to nothing greater, becauſe we can look forward to nothing better than that general Peace which Your Majeſty has concluded: Glorious indeed to Your Majeſty, and Safe to Your Subjects.

Thoſe Conditions are ſtill more valuable to us by the laſting Proſpect of enjoying them under the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which we hope it may be long before we experience, but when we do, are aſſured that by GOD's permiſſion, it will continue upon the Throne to lateſt Poſterity.

Moſt happy are we under Your Majeſty's Governmen, moſt happy will Poſterity be by the effects of it. Your Majeſty has been the Terror of Europe in War, and have now ſettled the Ballance of Power by the Terms of Peace. You have extended as well as ſecured the Trade of Your Subjects, and have ſhewn Your ſelf ſo much the Defender of our Eſtabliſh'd Religion, and Eſtabliſhed Liberties, that we hope when thoſe important Benefits of Your Glorious Reign, ſhall be duly reflected on; all Faction and Party-Rage will entirely ceaſe, and that thoſe who uſe the Engins of Popery and Phanaticiſm to diſturb our Quiet by their unreaſonable Jealouſies, will be for ever diſappointed. As for our Parts, we ſhall endeavour to cultivate that Unity among our Fellow Subjects, which Your Majeſty has ſo earneſtly recommended from the Throne.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Bradninch, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Copleſtone Rampfeild, Bar. Francis Gwyn and Edward St. Hill, Eſqrs; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. Earl Poulet, Lord Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Miniſter, Maſters and Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's antient and loyal Borough, Borough, Manor and Liberty of Bradninch, in Your Majesty's County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects, with Hearts full of Loyalty, humbly approach Your Sacred Person, among those who are sincere Lovers of their Prince and Country, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Accomplishment of Your wise Councils in obtaining a Peace: A Peace which we are fully satisfied must be Advantageous to Your People, having been made by a Princess of Your great Wisdom, who by all the Actions of Your Life have shewn, that You have nothing so much at Heart, as the Happiness and Welfare of Your People.

This Invaluable Blessing Your Majesty's Firmness and Constancy of Mind has procured for us, notwithstanding the open Opposition and secret Artifices used by designing Men, both at Home and Abroad, to obstruct the Happiness of their own Countries.

All Your Majesty's truly Faithful Subjects could not but be satisfied of Your good Intentions towards the House of Hanover; but the Assurance Your Majesty has condescended to give us, of the perfect Friendship there is between Your Majesty and that Illustrious House, has fully stop'd the Mouths of those, who under pretence of being more than ordinary Zealous for their Succession, cover'd Designs they did not dare own.

We beg leave to return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for Your Majesty's most kind and seasonable Advice given to both Your Houses of Parliament (and in them to all Your People) in the Close of Your last Gracious Speech; and in dutiful Compliance therewith, we shall implore the Assistance of Almighty GOD so to direct our Hearts, that no groundless Jealousies contriv'd by a Faction, and fomented by Party Rage, may make any Impression on us, and we hope that all our Fellow-Subjects will offer up the same Prayer.

That God would permit Your Majesty long to enjoy the Blessings of that Peace which You have given to Europe, is, and always shall be, the hearty Prayer of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Helstone, was presented to Her Majesty by Sydney Godolphin, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's antient and loyal Borough of Helstone, in the County of Cornwall.

Dread Sovereign,

THE Triumphant Laurels which Your Conquering Sword Yearly won, whilst engag'd in a necessary and successful War, gave us frequent Opportunities of justly Congratulating Your Majesty with the Title of Invincible: But the Olive-branch of Peace, which Your Majesty hath now blest us with, yields us a much more joyful Occasion of begging leave, with the most profound Humility, to Congratulate Your Sacred Majesty with that of Pacifick; a Title as in it self more Bright, and resplendent, so we are fully persuaded more satisfactory and agreeable to so pious and good a Queen, especially since the Peace You have made for us, has indisputably secur'd the Protestant Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, is so distinguishably Honourable, Glorious and Advantageous to Your own Dominions, the most grateful Return for which endearing Favour and invaluable Blessing we can make, is zealously to endeavour, in our several Stations, to compleat Peace at home, by discountenancing Faction and promoting Unity, which we beg leave solemnly to assure Your Majesty we will always do, whilst we have the Honour and Happiness (which God Almighty grant we may long, very long, enjoy) of being Your Majesty's most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Liskard, was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. William Bridges, one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Rochester, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Dutiful Subjects the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskard, in the County of Cornwall.

PERMIT us (most Dread Sovereign!) to Address Your Majesty with all Duty and Thankfulness for the inestimable Blessing of Peace Your Majesty hath obtained to Your Kingdoms, after so bloody and expensive a War. 'Tis the Happiness of Great Britain, that the making Peace as well as War, is the just Prerogative of the Crown, else 'tis to be fear'd that the different Interests lately among us, would have prevented the Peace which Your Majesty, by Your Royal Proclamation, hath published to have made with his most Christian Majesty the French King.

We do with the utmost Joy take Notice of Your Majesty's Zeal for the Establish'd Religion among us, and of the entire Friendship between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the indefatigable Endeavours and Insinuations of a Factious Party to the contrary.

That Your Majesty may long Reign, and, together with Your dutiful Subjects, enjoy the Blessings of Peace; and that Monarchy and Episcopacy may alway continue, is the hearty Prayer of Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Thorold, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE the Alderman, Comburgesses, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Grantham, beg leave, with the greatest Humility, to express our unfeigned Joy and Thankfulness for Your putting so Glorious an End to that Expence of Blood and Treasure, that has so long wasted Europe.

The Blessings of Heaven upon Your Majesty's wise and steddy Counsels, have at last, to the unspeakable Satisfaction of Your People, finish'd that great and difficult Work, which alone was wanting to render Your Reign the Glory of the present, and the Admiration of succeeding Ages.

From

From what You have already done with so much Honour and Justice to Your Allies, and such tender Affection to Your own People, we can with Pleasure and Confidence in the Divine Protection, promise our selves the happy Fruits of Peace under Your Gracious Administration.

Your Princely Wisdom appears in the Choice of a Ministry, who have given undeniable Proofs as well of their Abilities as Integrity, in finishing an Honourable and Safe Peace, notwithstanding the restless Endeavours of Faction to oppose it.

Your Religious Care to suppress the Growth of Blasphemy and Prophaneness will, we hope, in due time root out the Principles of Rebellion.

The right Understanding that is establish'd between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, must needs banish those Jealousies which some designing Men, for wicked Purposes, have labour'd to Corrupt the Affections of Your People with.

And we humbly beseech that good Providence, which has already made Your Reign the Glory of the British Throne, to make it still more and more so, by setting You above the reach of Your Enemies (if such Goodness can have any) and to preserve Your Sacred Person, upon which our Safety and Welfare do so nearly depend; and may we and all our Fellow-Subjects contend in nothing but in unfeigned Holiness, steddy Loyalty, and mutual Offices of Peace and good Will amongst our selves, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Aldeburgh, was Presented to Her Majesty by William Johnson Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, amongst the rest of Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly and heartily to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Endeavours in obtaining an honourable Peace.

The Difficulties You have surmounted in the Negotiations, the great Concern You have shewn for the Interest of all Your Allies in general, and the many Advantages You have gained for Your own Subjects in particular, and withal, the Regard You have had to our future as well as our present Happiness, by securing the Protestant Succession, and cultivating a perfect Friendship with the Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the insidious Attempts of a Factious Party, who have used their utmost Efforts to create Misunderstandings betwixt You; These, Madam, are all shining Instances of Your Majesty's singular Prudence and Conduct, and do abundantly display the Wisdom of Your Choice in Your Ministers at Home, and Your Plenipotentiaries Abroad.

That your Sacred Majesty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of that glorious Peace You have made, and after a prosperous Reign upon Earth, may, full of Days, be crowned with everlasting Glory in Heaven, shall be the constant Prayer of, Madam, your most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Andover, was Presented to Her Majesty by William Guidott, one of their Representatives in Parliament for that Corporation.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation and Borough of Andover, in the County of Southampton.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE humbly beg Leave to return our most humble and dutiful Thanks to Your Majesty for Communicating to your Parliament the Success of the important Affair of the Peace, and that the Treaty was signed, and would in a few Days be ratified.

We entirely rely on Your Majesty's Goodness and Wisdom that the same will appear equally glorious to Your Majesty, and beneficial to your Subjects.

We likewise return our most dutiful Thanks for your Royal Assurance of having provided for the Security of the Protestant Succession as now Established by the Acts of Settlement, and of the perfect Friendship that is between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover.

We shall always pray that all Attempts that have or shall be made to divide Your Majesty and that House (whose Interests are inseparable) will prove vain and ineffectual.

That Your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, that your People may always be united in their Duty and Affections to Your Majesty, as it is the hearty Prayer, so it shall ever be the utmost Endeavours of Your Majesty's most Faithful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Stafford, was Presented to Her Majesty by Walter Chetwynd, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Steward, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford.

May it please Your Majesty,

UPon this signal Occasion, permit us (Dread Sovereign) to approach your Throne; which we do with all Humility, and with the most joyful and thankful Hearts.

After the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure in War, the Conclusion of a Peace, Honourable to Your Majesty, Just to your Allies, Advantageous to your Subjects, must be to every one that loves his Country matter of the greatest Rejoycing.

But we (Madam) can neither sufficiently admire your Goodness in the Affection you express to your People and the Confidence you repose in them, nor your Wisdom in the Choice of such a Ministry for the Management of this and all your Affairs, as is every way equal to the Difficulties attending them, raised chiefly by a discontented Party among our selves.

To Your Majesty, the glorious Instrument under God, and to God, the sole Author of all the Blessings we enjoy, the most humble and hearty Acknowledgments are due: And thus it is we shall ever pay the same to both, by adhering firmly to the Church of England as by Law established, by bearing true Allegiance to Your Royal Person, by strenuously asserting the Protestant Succession, by studying and promoting the Arts of Peace, and by never ceasing to pray that Your Majesty may long, very long, continue to be the Minister of God unto us for Good.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Madrid, May 15. *N. The Queen Dowager hath ſent their Majeſties a Compliment of Condoleance upon the Death of the Duke d'Alencon by her Treaſurer, who is likewiſe ordered to regulate the Place of her Abode after the Peace. It is ſaid ſhe is inclin'd to live either at Vallidolid or Burgos, but the King who deſires to ſee her Majeſty here, hath ordered the Duke of Monteleon's Palace, where ſhe lodg'd before, to be fitted for her reception, and it is thought ſhe will comply with his requeſt. The Duke of Popoli is preparing for his departure to Catalonia, where it is reported Mareſchal Staremberg meets with great difficulty to ſupport his Troops, and that they commit ſeveral Diſorders for want of Money and Bread. Monſieur Orry is preparing a Scheme for regulating the Finances, the King hath aſſured Count Bergeick that when he hath done the ſame, he will examine them both himſelf, and fix on that which he thinks moſt beneficial for the Kingdom. In the mean time the Perſons that Farm the Taxes, have excuſed themſelves from making any Payments, upon account of this new Eſtabliſhment, which hath been ſo long talk'd of. On the 9th Inſtant, a Courier arrived from the Marquis de Monteleon, with an account of her Majeſty's having declared to Her Parliament, that ſhe had concluded the Peace. Two Days after, another Courier came from the Duke d'Oſſuna, with advice of his arrival at Utrecht, and we are impatient to hear that his Catholick Majeſty's Miniſters have likewiſe Sign'd the Treaty of Peace.

It hath been alſo ſtipulated, That the Muſcovites ſhall go out of Holſtein within fifteen Days after the Swedes are embark'd, and That the City of Tonningen ſhall not be attack'd in a Year. It is ſaid the Confederates deſign to beſiege Wiſmar, immediately after the departure of the Swedes.

Bruſſels, May 25. N. S. Count Tilly, who went ſome Days ago to Tournay, in order to regulate with Mareſchal Monteſquiou, the evacuation of the Places to be given up on both Sides, in purſuance of the Treaty of Peace, is returned hither, after having Sign'd a Convention on that Subject at Orchies. The Town and Caſtle of Namure are to be evacuated on the 29th Inſtant. Bethune and St. Venant are to be evacuated on the ſame Day. Furnes and Aire on the 1ſt of June; Charleroy, Ypres and Liſle on the 4th. The Day is not yet appointed for the evacuation of Luxemburg, which will be made according to the Orders ſent by the Court of France to the Marquis d'Imecourt, and the giving up of Nieuport is deferr'd till the States General ſend directions upon it to Count Tilly. The Magazines are to be tranſported out of the ſaid Places within ſix Weeks, to commence from the 1ſt of June.

Paris, May 26. N. S. Yeſterday Te Deum was ſung in the Cathedral Church of Noſtre Dame for the concluſion of the Peace. The Service was performed by the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbiſhop of Paris. The Chancellor of France, the Preſident, the King's Council, the Government, and Communities of this City were likewiſe aſſiſting at it. At Night there was a Firework erected before the Hoſtel de Ville, and an Entertainment made by the Duke of Treſmes, Governor of the City, at which the Duke of Shrewsbury, Her Majeſty's Ambaſſador, and ſeveral of the Britiſh Nobility were preſent. All other demonſtrations of univerſal Joy were ſhewn upon this occaſion.

Utrecht, May 30. N. S. On the 25th the Pruſſian Miniſters received advice, that the Troops of the King their Maſter, had taken Poſſeſſion of that part of the Upper Quarter of Guelderland which is alloted them by the Treaty of Peace. Count Stadian, who reſided here on the Part of the Elector of Mayence, having received his Letters of Revocation, ſet out for Germany on the 27th, and it is ſaid he will be followed in a few Days by other Miniſters of the Empire. On the 28th the Earl of Strafford returned from Amſterdam, where he had been for a few Days. Yeſterday Morning Her Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries were in Conference with thoſe of France
